FAQ

What happens after I register?

You will receive an information packet in the mail filled with everything you need to know about camp.

I have some questions, who can answer them for me?

You can call us at 306.653.1944, or find information on our website, www.mohylainstitute.ca.

Is there anything my registration fee does not cover?

Your food, lodging, and activity fees are all covered by your registration. You may want to have personal spending money for souvenirs or snacks while outside of the residence.

How does the final concert work?

The final concert will take place on the afternoon of Saturday, August 20th. Tickets will go on sale beginning in the summer and we encourage you to invite your family to attend. Camp ends following the performance.

Early-bird deadline is March 1st!
Apply early to ensure acceptance.
